7. Parks Reports:
 - A. Yangus Park. John Kruczek informs committee that Township Board approves Trail through the east end of park.

B. Culver. Vince Colabelli reports Homer Athletic Club using an over the counter weed preventer had sprayed all grass areas on the ball fields at no expense to the Township. New baseball field construction almost completed and should be open to the public approx. 3 weeks. Highway Department will pave both parking lots to encourage parking in those areas

C. Sports Complex. Vince Colabelli reports Township needs to replenish ground cover in tot lot. Reminder to the Township committee believes there is a special material that needs to be used. Lights on baseball fields need the yearly inspection with replacements to non lit bulbs. All football field bulbs were replaced last year.

D. Sendra Park. Ron Longanecker reports Graffiti needs to be removed on play set. Merry Go Round is a hazard Committee along with Torma strongly recommend permanent removal.

E. Goreham. NONE

F. Lamers. NONE

G. Morris. NONE

8. Sports Group Concern:

Homer Stallions concerned on field maintenance and put in a request for 2 months to close and repair football fields. Request was denied because of timing and amount of space needed which interferes with Homer Baseball program. Stallions are looking to start asap. Both sports group set up a separate time to meet (Saturday May 22nd) to evaluate situation.

9. Old Business: Motion was passed last year by Township Board to remove and dispose of one set of bleachers at Culver South West ball field and replaced with existing bleacher that were used on Soccer field.

- 10. New Business Ron Longanecker starts discussion on the Township using its resources to develop more recreation park space
